

Little Trevallack sleeps 2 – 5 in 2 bedrooms and a cot can be provided on request. Not suitable for pets. Private parking. Central heating.

Situated in a fascinating area renowned for its mild climate therefore ideal for walking, surfing or spending time on the beach for summer or winter holidays. It has views of the sea and Cape Cornwall. It is less than a mile from Lands End.

The nearest town of St. Just is 4 miles away and Sennen is on the bus route to Penzance which is 9 miles. There is a half mile downhill footpath walk to the beach at Sennen Cove and the coastal footpath.

Little Trevallack has a large, well furnished sitting room with flat screen colour television. A conservatory leads off this into the garden.

There is an extra large family bedroom with wardrobe, dressing table, king size bed and 1 single bed. A cot and an adult sized fold up bed can be provided on request. The other bedroom has a double bed, wardrobe and chest of drawers. There are duvets on all the beds and bed linen is provided. The en-suite bathroom contains a bath with shower, washbasin and toilet. There is also a separate shower room with toilet and washbasin. Towels are not provided.

The well equipped kitchen has a fridge/freezer, washing machine, microwave oven, dishwasher and electric cooker.

The hot water is heated by an overnight immersion heater and the central heating is by radiators.
